

Wind Energy Forum

Thursday, January 22, 2009

Redwood Falls Community Center
901 E Cook St
Redwood Falls, MN

9:00 AM Welcome and Introductions
Julie Rath, Redwood Area Dev. Corporation

9:05 AM The Big Picture –Why Wind Energy is An Opportunity
Dan Juhl, Juhl Wind, Inc.

Sponsored By:

Commercial Scale Wind Energy

9:30 AM Risks vs Rewards: From Leasing Your Land to Owning a Project
Melissa Peterson, Program Analyst with Windustry

10:00 AM Lease/Option Concerns and Community Organization
Ray Faricy and Stan Duran, Lindquist and Vennum PLLP

10:30 AM Break

10:40 AM Minnesota Wind Energy: Permitting, Policy & Legislation
Netty Bair, Southwest Clean Energy Resource Team and Cheryl Glaeser, Southwest Initiative Foundation

11:15 AM Commercial-scale Opportunities - Panel Discussion/Q&A Above presenters as well as Katie Clark with National Wind, George Crocker with North American Water Office, and David Schiebel with Norfolk Wind

Noon Lunch

Home and Farm Scale Wind & Other Renewable Energy Opportunities

1:00 PM Home and Farm Scale Opportunities for Renewable Energy
Panel Discussion with:

Juhl Wind, Inc., Woodstock, MN
Green Energy Products LLC – Springfield, MN
Back Up Power Source, Slayton, MN

2:00 PM Redwood County Wind Ordinance
Jon Mitchell – Environmental Office

2:20 PM Renewable Energy Careers
Duane Carrow, MN West Community & Technical College

2:40 PM Q&A

3:00 PM Close

*REDI is a rural wind energy program administered by the Southwest Initiative Foundation that is sponsored by the State of Minnesota and the Center for Rural Policy and Development.